

Third Party Use of Personal Information Acknowledgement

Where you are gifting or lending funds to a Borrower of the Bank, we require documentary evidence of the source of these funds, in order to prevent fraud. This may include, but is not limited to, copies of your bank statements or passbooks, investment maturity or share sale documentation, evidence of other lump sums received and documentary proof of your identity.

We may check your personal details against those held in fraud prevention agencies' or credit reference agencies' records to help us detect and prevent fraud, to comply with anti-money laundering regulations, and generally to validate the details being used or provided for the application. The information we provide may be used and disclosed by such agencies to other companies unrelated to us for fraud prevention purposes.

If false or inaccurate information is provided by you or on your behalf; if we suspect fraud or if fraud is identified, details will be kept in our records and also passed to fraud prevention agencies, law enforcement agencies and other organisations involved in crime and fraud prevention which may access and use this information. We and other organisations may access and use from other countries the information recorded by fraud prevention agencies.

If you would like details of the agencies from which we obtain and record information about you, please write to: Retail Credit Decisioning, 20 Merrion Way, Leeds, LS2 8NZ.

The Bank's current retention period for such information is the duration of the mortgage, plus seven years. This information will not be used for any purpose other than described above.

By signing this declaration you acknowledge Clydesdale Bank plc's (trading as Clydesdale Bank and Yorkshire Bank) legitimate interest to retain a copy of the information you provide on the Borrower's mortgage file for any period as may reasonably be required. Where you are providing information relating to a joint account, all parties to the account must sign below.
